

Dancing Bear Puppet Theater Presents:

The Three Little Pigs

“The Three Little Pigs” is a perennial favorite among American children. This is the story of three little pigs who build their homes of straw, wood and brick, and a wolf who manages to blow down the homes of the first two piggies. The third clever pig, however, withstands not only the wolf’s incredibly bad breath, but his trickery as well. This hand puppet show runs one half hour and is performed in the red stage.

Choose this show, or any show shown below for the same price. You may learn more about these shows or storytelling options at www.thepuppets.com, or feel free to call me at 315-829-4898. I will be delighted to answer any of your questions regarding my performances.
